

The Fishermen's Associations in the northwest of Spain: An economic and financial analysis of the member's participation and their governance

PhD student:

Iria García Lorenzo. Department of Applied Economics, DOMar, ERENEA, ECOBAS, University of Vigo

Manuel Varela Lafuente. Department of Applied Economics, ERENEA, ECOBAS, University of Vigo

Thesis directors:

María José Cabaleiro Casal. Department of Financial Economics and Accountancy, ECOBAS, University of Vigo

Fishermen's Associations in the northwest of Spain

with the support of the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR
MARINE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT

DOMAR PhD

1000 hours of formation (different ways)

DOMAR Courses

1 academic paper

International PhD Mention

Multidisciplinary, International, Adaptable

October 2013 – 5 Academic years – October 2018

RESEARCH

2 research lines:

An economic and financial analysis of the member's participation

Small-scale fisheries and the governance in Fishermen's Associations

Candidate for the DOMar Program: Oct 2013

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR PhD

Bachelor + Master

CV

Level B2 at English

Selection of the Thesis Director and Co-director

Admission to the DOMar Program:

Full time → 3 years +1+1

Partial time → 5 years +1+1 (Relation 0,6)

Selected each year

RESEARCH

¿?

Fisheries resources

Galician economic sector

Financial accounting

First year in DOMar Oct 2013 – Sep 2014

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR PhD

Annual Research Planning (PAI): In May or October 2014. Nowadays in July:

Introduction, Theoretical frame, Methodology, Objectives and Schedule of 5 years

Courses: DOMar Advance Course
(4ECTS = 100hours) and DOMar
Transversal Course (1ECTs = 25hours)

125 hours

RESEARCH

Study unit: Fishermen's Associations

Organization of the Social Economy:
Economics of participation

Activity performs on Natural Resources: Natural Resources
Economics

Proposal of a possible case study and/or a comparative study

FISHERMEN'S ASSOCIATIONS

Second year in DOMar Oct 2014 – Sep 2015

 with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR
MARINE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT

DOMAR PhD

Formation: National Research Stay in a Cooperative Studies Center (22 weeks =
444 hours)
Congress and seminars (41 hours)

Courses: DOMar AC (4ECTS = 100hours)
and DOMar TC (1ECTs = 25 hours)

PAI: Progress according the schedule
propose to the Advisory Commission,
October 2015

125 + 610 = 735 hours

RESEARCH

Study of Social Economy, Economics of Participation, Theory of the Firm,
Contractual Approach and Agency
Theory

Member's participation in the Fishermen's Associations: regulation

Relation with the directors weekly or even daily, by Skype and mail

CONGRESS POSTER

Third year in DOMar Oct 2015 – Sep 2016

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR
MARINE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT

DOMAR PhD

Formation: 3 positive PAI
Presentation (100 hours)

DOMar Inauguration (25 hours)

Courses: DOMar TC (1ECTs = 25 hours)

PAI: Progress according the schedule
propose to the Advisory Commission,
May 2016

Change to full time, UVigo

735 + 150 = 885 hours

RESEARCH

Fishermen's Association in Galicia:
Institutional Framework and Characterization

Members' participation: Decision-making, Real and Financial flows

Regulation and Case study: structure, organization, dimension and evolution

Conclusion: Special participation firm

CONGRESS COMUNICATION

Fourth year in DOMar Oct 2016 – Sep 2017

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR PhD

Formation: International Research Stay
in Aveiro (10 weeks), Student's Day, Congress and Seminars (around 400
hours)

PAI: Progress according the schedule
propose to the Advisory Commission,
May 2017

885 + 400 = ±1285 hours

RESEARCH

The Small-scale Fisheries, the governance of the Fishermen's
Associations

Socio-Ecological System and Interactive Governance: action of the administration and society, public policies

Enlarge of the case study: more FA and more topics, Portugal and Scotland

COMPARATIVE STUDY

Fifth year in DOMar Oct 2017 – Sep 2018

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

DOMAR
MARINE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT

DOMAR PhD

Formation > 1000 hours ✓

DOMar courses ✓

Academic paper ✗

International PhD Mention →
Voluntary

PAI: Progress according the schedule
propose to the Advisory Commission

RESEARCH

Two research lines:

Member's participation in the Fishermen's Associations: Realisation of an academic paper

SES and Interactive Governance applied to the small-scale fisheries of Galicia:
Realisation of an academic paper

Portugal, Scotland and Cambodia

UNIVERSIDADE
DE VIGO

with the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Thank you

Phnom Penh, October 19, 2017